Re: Tidwell v. Zhejiang Jiandi Trading & Industrial Co., Ltd., et al.
Case No. 13-cv-5701 (AKH)

Dear Judge Hellerstein:

As you may recall, the Court has scheduled a conference to discuss settlement in the above-referenced matter for 10:00 a.m. on December 6, 2013. On or about October 31, 2013, plaintiff's attorney indicated that they would provide information to my office to help identify if my client, Wal-Mart Stores, Inc., has any business dealing with Zhejians Jiandi Traders & Industrial Co., Ltd., the entity which plaintiff has a default judgment against. This information is required because Wal-Mart's search of its records has not uncovered a match for Zhejians Jiandi Traders & Industrial Co., Ltd. Although we had hoped to resolve Wal-Mart's stake in the garnishment case with plaintiff, we are unable to without the requested information. Therefore, we now intend to oppose plaintiff's Motion for a Default Judgment and request an enlargement of time to serve an Answer.

I still believe the December 6, 2013 conference will be beneficial. However, I respectfully request that the attorneys be allowed to appear by telephone. My offices are located in Rochester, New York and some of the co-defendants' attorneys are located in Ohio. The cost and time to personally appear would be better spent in attempting to resolve this matter.

Please advise if appearing by telephone is acceptable.

Very truly yours,

T. Andrew Brown
